² If market circumstances require, the credit interest rate can be negative, as a result of which client will have to pay interest to the Bank over a credit balance. Credit interest rates vary per currency and can be found via <https://new.ingwb.com/en/service#service-payments-and-collections>

As ING is exposed to extra costs in case there are extra balances placed at year-end, ING reserves the rights to charge a flat fee of 15bps over the extra balances (see above mentioned link).

In the event of negative rates relative to some currencies, the Bank reserves the right to recover said negative interest rates on all deposits made by customers by way of prior information in accordance with Article 12 of the general part of the Wholesale Banking Conditions.

³ If, for any reason, any of the clients' Accounts kept with ING shows a negative (debit) balance or, in the event of an overdraft arrangement between ING and the client, the debit balance of the relevant Account exceeds the permitted limit approved for the client, default interest shall be accrued on the amount of such debit balance or of such excess, as the case may be.

Unless agreed otherwise, the interest applied to the account is set in accordance with Wholesale Banking Conditions. The conditions defined in the overdraft credit facility will prevail the ones described in this document.

Conditions

Business Days

Information regarding the national public and banking holidays can be found in the Boletín Oficial del Estado and the Boletín Oficial del Ayuntamiento de Madrid. Information regarding TARGET closing days can be found on: <http://www.ecb.int/home/html/holidays.en.html>

Foreign Exchange

The Bank executes payment transactions where a currency conversion is required in the following way:

- Transactions up to € 100K: using independent market standard reference rates published by Refinitiv (formerly known as Thomson Reuters) every day at 07:00, 11:00, 14:00 and 17:00 hrs. CET. Payments are processed immediately applying the rates of the last previously published Refinitiv rate update plus a service spread.
- Transactions over € 100K: using a "real time ING rate", established using a base rate determined on the principle of best execution including a service spread. ING guarantees the best execution principle by applying the best FX rate offered by any of 11 FX market liquidity providers (6 leading banks, 3 Electronic Communication Networks and 2 interbank brokers). The resulting base rate is updated every 2 seconds in our FX platform.

Details of exchange rate used for specific payment transactions are available on account statements/reporting

Debit and Credit interest rates

Debit balances shall accrue interest on behalf of the Bank. Credit balances shall accrue interest on behalf of the Account Holder if expressly stated otherwise. Debit/Credit interest shall accrue daily and will be calculated on the basis of a 360/365 days' year, respectively. Debit/Credit interest shall be settled monthly the first calendar day of each month on the basis of the number of days each given debit/credit balance has stayed in the account ("Hamburg Method"). Interest Base Rate will be the monthly average of the interest rate reference, as for Euribor 1month in Euro, based on the daily rates of the liquidation period.

Cancellation / modification of Payment / Collection instructions
