Accounts, Debit and Credit interest rates

Accounts shall be maintained by ING Bank in favour of the Client in PLN and / or Convertible Currencies, and in special cases only in the currencies of the Member States, used to carry out Payment Transactions. Unless agreed otherwise with respect to any of the Account, the funds accumulated on the Accounts in local or convertible currency:

- Do not bear any interest,
- Bear interest at a fixed or variable rate set by ING Bank for an annual basis. The interest rate for the Account is determined in the resolution of the President of ING Bank Śląski. Information about changes in the interest rate is communicated to the Client through the ING Business system and on the website of ING Bank. In case of interest-bearing Accounts the interest on the funds on the Account shall be accumulated in the currency of the Account for the actual number of days of depositing the funds on the Account with the assumption that the financial year has 365 days. Interest on funds, if the funds are interest bearing, shall be calculated from the date the funds come to the Account to the day preceding the day the funds are withdrawn and inclusive of it. The funds paid and withdrawn on the same day shall not bear interest. The funds accumulated in Accounts shall bear the following variable interest as determined by the decision of the Bank Management Board:

- for PLN funds 0.00% AER compounded on a monthly basis,
- EUR and USD accounts 0.00% AER compounded on a quarterly basis.

The funds accumulated in Accounts maintained in the currencies other than the ones referred to hereinabove shall bear no interest.

Interest rate shall be changed under the Ordinance by the President of the Bank, which shall be announced to the general public in the standard manner adopted therefore by the Bank and which shall neither be deemed as an amendment hereto nor require termination hereof. The Bank reserves the right to change the interest rate on the bank accounts opened hereunder for the duration hereof due to serious reasons, and in particular due to: a change of interest rate set by the National Bank of Poland, a change of the inflation level as announced by GUS (Central Statistical Office), a change to the amount of mandatory reserves or the manner in which the latter are computed, a change in the solvency rate or liquidity rate as well as the change of: WIBID, WIBOR, LIBID, LIBOR, EURIBOR or EURIBID rates. If market circumstances require, a credit balance fee can be charged, as a result of which the Client will have to pay a fee to the Bank over a credit balance.

International credit transfers

With respect to International and Domestic Credit Transfers in electronic form made from foreign currency accounts, ING Bank sets the Cut-Off times at 15:30 on a Business Day. Payment Orders placed after those Cut-off Times are assumed to be received on the following Business Day. With respect to International and Domestic Credit Transfers in paper form made from foreign currency accounts, ING Bank sets the Cut-off Times at 14:00 on a Business Day. Payment Orders placed after those Cut-off Times are assumed to be received on the following Business Day. With respect to In-house International Credit Transfers, ING Bank sets the following Cut-off Times on the Business Day at 18:00. Payment Orders placed after those Cut-off Times are assumed to be received on the following Business Day.

ING Bank undertakes to process the International Credit Transfer on the basis of a Payment Order by crediting the account of the payee's bank with the amount of that transfer not later than by the second Business Day from the moment of receiving the Payment Order with an exception specified below. ING Bank undertakes to process the International Credit Transfer in EUR, on the basis of a Payment Order submitted in electronic form, by crediting the account of payee's Bank, that is operating in the Republic of Poland or on the territory of any other Member State, with the amount of the Credit Transfer not later than by the following Business Day from the moment of receiving the Payment Order. ING Bank will process the International Credit Transfer before the deadline specified above on the condition of marking the Payment Order as "urgent", giving the value date and delivering it to ING Bank by the relevant Cut-off Time for each foreign currency. Detailed information on available Cut-off Times is published on the ING Bank Śląski's internet site www.ingbank.pl.

The Parties unanimously agree that in case of delivering an urgent instruction after the currency's Cut-Off Time, the date of crediting the payee's bank/debiting, crediting the account of ING Bank specified by the Client will be changed by ING Bank to the next Business Day. ING Bank will charge an additional fee for processing an urgent instruction in accordance with the Tariffs and Conditions for Payment Services. ING Bank undertakes to process an In-house Credit Transfer in Convertible Currencies with a set processing date before the end of the Business Day on which the instruction is placed regardless of the form of the Payment Order and taking into consideration the Cut-off Times specified in Section 3 above by the end of that Business Day at the latest. In case of International Credit Transfers, ING Bank is entitled to choose the clearing system. With respect to In-house International Credit Transfers, ING Bank sets the following Cut-off Times on the Business Day. Payment Orders placed after those Cut-off Times are assumed to be received on the following Business Day. For ING Bank to process a Payment Transaction, the Client is obliged to make a Payment Order in accordance with the Principles of Payment Order Processing below and in case of directing the transaction to:

- countries where Account numbers follow the IBAN format
- to indicate the number of the account in that standard and the BIC code of the payee's bank,
- other countries subject to provisions of USA
- to indicate account number of the payee and identification of the payee's Bank
- BIC of the payee's bank,
- USA
- to indicate BIC or the FW/ABA number (nine digit bank code identifying banks in the clearing systems in the USA) and the full name of the payee's bank.
- Payment Orders complying with the conditions mentioned

The section above shall be treated as standard ones sent to automatic processing in the STP mode.

When a Payment Order does not comply with the requirements specified above, or include other, additional pieces of information, for example the identification/name of the agent bank, ING Bank will charge the Account chosen by the Client for performing the Payment Transaction with an additional fee for processing a non-standard instruction not cleared in the automatic process (so called NON STP fee), including fees charged by the Receiver's Bank.

When a Payment Order performed in the currency of any Member State is addressed to the payee's Bank that is operating in the Republic of Poland or on the territory of any other Member State, it is required to indicate the account number solely in the IBAN form. ING Bank may decide to credit the Client's Bank Account, despite lack of prior / earlier crediting of ING Bank account with the said amount.

In case ING Bank decides as per above, and in case of default or delay in crediting the ING Bank shall have the right to:

- Taking actions aimed at recovery of the Payment Transaction amount from the Client, wherewith ING Bank was not credited, or
- Recovering from the Client of the amount as per the Table of Fees and Commissions under the delay on crediting the ING Bank account in relation to Client Bank Account Crediting.

In case the Client/Payee is of the view that the Funds it has received have been transferred by the Payer mistakenly – with no reservations to ING Bank as to the correctness of the processed Payment Transaction – the Client/Payee has the right to make a return Payment Order.

Revocation

The Parties unanimously agree that ING Bank charges a fee for revoking the Payment Order in accordance with the Tariffs for Payment Services. The Parties unanimously agree that in case the Client denies to have issued the Authorisation for processing the Payment Transactions or states that the Payment Transaction has been processed incorrectly, the burden of proving that the Payment Instrument has been used, the fact that the Payment Transaction has been authorised, properly recorded, recognised in the books, or that the Transaction has not been influenced by any technical problem or any other fault or error, lies not on ING Bank. The Parties unanimously agree that in case the Client denies to have issued the Authorisation for the processed Payment Transactions, the burden of proving that the use of a payment instrument has been recorded and the burden to prove other circumstances indicating the Authorisation of the Payment Transaction by the payee, or the fact the payee has deliberately led to an unauthorised Payment Transaction, or deliberately, or through gross negligence has breached the obligations:

- to use the payment instrument in accordance with the terms and conditions of issuing and using that payment instrument, and
- to report without undue delay to the Provider the fact of noticing the loss, theft of the payment instrument, fraud committed with the use of the payment instrument by a person authorised to use it to the detriment of the holder, or its unauthorised use, as well as its appropriation, lies not on ING Bank.

Cash

ING Bank is carrying out Payment Orders to pay or withdraw cash in PLN in banknotes and in coins as well as in foreign currencies only in banknotes, subject to the provision of Section 2 below.

ING Bank does not make payments in foreign currencies in coins. In case a Payment Order expressed in foreign currency cannot be carried out in banknotes, ING Bank will pay the equivalent of that amount in PLN in accordance with the separate regulations on currency conversions. ING Bank accepts Cash Payment Orders and Cash Withdrawal Orders in the following forms:

- open – on the basis of Order made in person in a paper form at all ING Offices that provide cash services,
- sealed bag – on the basis of separate agreement signed with the Client.

The Client is obliged to make an Advising, when the amount of the Cash Withdrawal Order exceeds the amount specified in the Message.

Principles of Payment Order processing

For ING Bank to process a Payment Transaction subject to the provisions mentioned above, the Client is requested to:

- Deliver the Payment Order in a form specified in the ING Conditions for Payment Services, containing a Unique Identifier of the payee and/or the payer which for cash instructions and Credit Transfers is the number of the Account in the IBAN or NRB format.
- Provide the funds necessary to process the Payment Order including all necessary costs connected with the processing on the Processing Day.
- See to it that the contents of the Payment Order comply with the provisions of the agreements and terms and conditions binding ING Bank and the Client, binding regulations of the law, the Electronic Payment Instrument Act, the Banking Act, the regulations on counteracting money laundering and financing of terrorism as well as the binding legal regulations of the European Union.
- Authorise the Payment Order in accordance with the provisions of the ING Conditions for Payment Services.

Payment Orders in writing

At the request of the Client, ING Bank is processing Domestic Credit Transfers not exceeding PLN 1,000.000 through the Sorbnet2 clearing system except for Domestic Credit Transfers submitted in paper form.

Tariffs for other Payment Services

Other bank services not mentioned herein, shall be charged on the basis of Table of Fees and Commissions of ING Bank Śląski Spółka Akcyjna for residents and non-residents being legal persons and individuals not holding legal capacity.
