As ING is exposed to extra costs in case there are extra balances placed at year-end, ING reserves the rights to charge a flat fee of 15bps over the extra balances (see above mentioned link)

In the event of negative rates relative to some currencies, the Bank reserves the right to recover said negative interest rates on all deposits made by customers by way of prior information in accordance with Article 16 of the general part of the Wholesale Banking Conditions.

³ If, for any reason, any of the clients' Accounts kept with ING shows a negative (debit) balance or, in the event of an overdraft arrangement between ING and the client, the debit balance of the relevant Account exceeds the permitted limit approved for the client, default interest shall be accrued on the amount of such debit balance or of such excess, as the case may be. Unless agreed otherwise, the interest applied to the account is set in accordance with Wholesale Banking Conditions

Conditions

Business Days

Information regarding TARGET closing days can be found on: <http://www.ecb.int/home/html/holidays.en.html>

Foreign Exchange

The Bank executes payment transactions where a currency conversion is required in the following way:

- Transactions up to € 100K: using independent market standard reference rates published by Refinitiv (formerly known as Thomson Reuters) every day at 07:00, 11:00, 14:00 and 17:00 hrs CET. Payments are processed immediately applying the rates of the last previously published Refinitiv rate update plus a service spread.
- Transactions over € 100K: using a “real time ING rate”, established using a base rate determined on the principle of best execution including a service spread. ING guarantees the best execution principle by applying the best FX rate offered by any of 11 FX market liquidity providers (6 leading banks, 3 Electronic Communication Networks and 2 interbank brokers). The resulting base rate is updated every 2 seconds in our FX platform.

Details of exchange rate used for specific payment transactions are available on account statements/reporting

Debit and Credit interest rates

Debit balances shall accrue interest on behalf of the Bank. Credit balances shall accrue interest on behalf of the Account Holder if expressly stated otherwise. Debit/Credit interest shall accrue daily and will be calculated on the basis of a 360/365 days' year, respectively. Debit/Credit interest will be liquidated monthly the last working day of each month on the basis of the number of days each given debit/credit balance has stayed in the account (“Hamburg Method”). To these effects this last working day shall be computed and any day after will be incorporated to the next monthly liquidation. Interest Base Rate will be the monthly average of the interest rate reference, as for Euribor 1month in Euro, based on the daily rates of the liquidation period.

Compensated value date

In case the Client requests a Payment Order with same day value (SDVA codeword), ING will make sure that the debit value date will correspond with the date on which the PSP of the Beneficiary is credited. Compensated value date is chargeable according to this Tariff brochure.

Repair

The ING Office reserves the right to, in individual cases, make automatic or manual repairs to Payment Orders. Such repairs are chargeable according to this Tariff brochure.

Refusal Domestic / SEPA Direct Debit

The Client is able to refuse a Domestic / SEPA Direct Debit collection until 1 Banking Business Day before the due date of the Domestic / SEPA Direct Debit. Requests received after Cut-Off Time will lead to a regular debit of the account.

Cancellation / modification Multiple Domestic / SEPA credit transfer

In case of a Multiple Domestic / SEPA credit transfer it is possible to cancel the entire batch or to cancel a maximum of 5 individual credit transfers within a batch. A cancellation or modification must be received by ING one Business Day prior to the execution date

Revocation

The request to revoke a Payment Transaction can be submitted via the E-mail addresses which can be found on the last page of this document.
