General conditions

These terms and conditions are applicable as of 1 July 2012 and supersede all previous ones. They may be amended without prior notice. They apply to operations processed by ING Belgium SA/NV, Brussels, Belgium (further referred to as 'ING').

ING account arrangements and services for Financial Institutions shall be governed by the ING Financial Institutions Legal Conditions¹ unless any deviation there from has been agreed upon. Operations between ING and its correspondents are subject to our General Regulations².

The rates apply to transactions that can be completed in a normal way only. For special services, an additional amount will be charged in proportion to their nature and extent. Postage, cable and telephone charges, portorage and other out-of-pocket expenses will be debited to ING Bank's principal.

In addition, VAT³ if any, and additional charges requested by our correspondents will be claimed.

Fees will be charged to the sending bank, unless otherwise stated or otherwise agreed. ING reserves the right to change the fees at any time in accordance with legal requirements and, at the occasion of new pricing, will ensure publication of new Terms & Conditions.

Any claim for payment of interest or damages owing to an error, will only be considered if received within a period of 90 days after the date of the entry concerned.
